VENDOR AGREEMENT

TRAVERSE COLANTHA WALKER DAIRY FESTIVAL
SUNDAY . JUNE 14, 2015 . 9:00AM TO 3:00PM
THE VILLAGE AT GRAND TRAVERSE COMMONS . TRAVERSE CITY . MI

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Vendor Acceptance: In addition to the following terms and conditions, Vendor agrees to abide by all city/county/state regulations and ordinances, as well as applicable Department of Agriculture, Department of Health, food service/food preparation, ingredient identification, labeling, and licensing requirements. Vendors must prominently display licenses in their booth. The Minervini Group shall not be responsible for vendor losses as a result of non-compliance. Vendor understands and agrees that the vendor fee is non-refundable for such infractions.

Liability: Vendor shall assume full responsibility, and shall indemnify The Minervini Group, The Village at Grand Traverse Commons, and all other Village entities, personnel, staff and/or agents, for injury or illness which occurs as a result of vendor's participation. Further, The Minervini Group, The Village at Grand Traverse Commons, and all other Village entities, personnel, staff, and/or agents shall be indemnified and held harmless against any injury, loss or damage that may occur to an event attendee, vendor, vendor property, employees, family members, staff, vehicles, services, products, merchandise, equipment, or any other personnel or item. Vendor assumes full responsibility for vendor insurance coverage in the event of such losses, damages, or injuries.

Space: The vendor's space is to be used solely by the vendor that is applying for a vendor booth. Vendors cannot sublet or assign any portion of the space to another vendor.

Booths: All booths and decorations must comply with city ordinances and local fire codes. Pop-up tents must be labeled as fire retardant. Typically, the TC Fire Marshal inspects an event site, so if there are code infractions, they will ask for compliance or removal of the item.

Demonstrations: Demos and activities should be confined to your booth area, and should not interfere with neighboring vendors. For activities requiring larger areas, please contact event coordinators in advance to discuss more suitable and accessible booth locations.

Food Items/Food Products: Vendors must be duly licensed and approved to handle, sell, or dispense food of any kind for public consumption. Packaged items must be properly labeled. It is the full responsibility of the vendor to comply with Department of Health/Department of Agriculture regulations. Vendor license must be prominently displayed on the vendor booth. Food preparation and food service vendors must also adhere to regulations relating to food safety, hand washing/sanitizing, cleaning of utensils, wastewater and wastewater disposal. The Minervini Group is not responsible for providing this information. Compliance, regulations and guidelines are available at: www.michigan.gov/mda

Parking: Vendors may unload near their booths, however, all vendor vehicles must be moved immediately after unloading, to assigned parking behind Pleasanton Brick Oven Bakery. Please do not set up your vendor booth until after you have moved your vehicle(s). A map to the event site, and the location of the designated parking area will be provided in your vendor package.
